

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title:	Water Hygiene Engineer
Location:	London/South East
Closing Date:	Friday 18 th May 2018

Job Purpose: -

To assist in the running of environmental and building legislative compliance contracts in the UK London/South East region.

Key Responsibilities: -

Responsibilities will include carrying out various water hygiene tasks, as detailed below: -

- Water temperature monitoring
- Water sampling
- Disinfection of showers
- Disinfection of domestic water services
- Clean & Disinfection of Cold Water Storage Tanks
- Hygiene monitoring of water systems
- TMV servicing
- Inspection of Calorifiers
- Undertaking of remedial actions to water systems
- Carry out allocated service work within agreed time schedules, adhering to the company's health and safety policy and quality policy, and to the relevant industry guidelines and customer specifications
- Complete reports and paperwork as instructed by your team leader
- Be available to carry out necessary works outside normal hours with additional remuneration
- Quality – Ensure compliance with QMS, documentation to be correct and current
- Remedial works
- Any other associated duties which may be requested from time to time.

Essential Criteria

- Able to work as part of a team.
- Full driving licence
- Able to deal directly with customers in a professional manner and represent the company

Desirable criteria:

- Previous experience in TMV servicing
- Up to date Legionella awareness training
- Have at least 2 years' previous experience of Legionella monitoring and sampling
- Completion and interpretation of chemical service reports

JOB DESCRIPTION

In return, we offer a competitive salary and benefits package which include a company vehicle.

HBE IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES EMPLOYER