

Safeguarding for Adults & Children eLearning Course

Safeguarding is about minimising and managing the risks to vulnerable individuals which includes Adults at Risk (Vulnerable Adults) and Children.

Safeguarding Adults

This course is design for anyone who has a duty of care for, or comes into contact with, adults in need of care and support, either as a paid professional or a volunteer. This includes, but isn't limited to, those that work in domiciliary care, the NHS, community centres, prisons or with a family member at home, and sets out the roles and responsibilities everyone must undertake to protect an adult's right to live in safety, free from abuse and neglect.

Both you and the organisation you work for must take appropriate and proportional measures necessary for the protection of adults in your care, while still ensuring they are supported and empowered to have control over how they want to live their lives.

This means that whatever the circumstance, you and the organisation you work for must take appropriate and proportional measures necessary for the protection of adults in your care, whilst ensuring they are supported and empowered to have control over how they want to live their lives.

During this course you will hear many facts, figures and details surrounding the risk to adults in need of care and support, the types of abuse suffered and key safeguarding legislation put in place to minimise the abuse of adults with care and support needs.

Course Aims

By the end of this course learners will be able to:

- Define the key terminology in relation to safeguarding;

- Identify the principle laws that relate to safeguarding and why they have been put in place to minimise abuse.
- Recognise and respond to the ten types of abuse suffered by vulnerable adults.
- Identify and report concerns of abuse or neglect.
- Describe your role, responsibilities and boundaries.
- Ensure people are supported and encouraged to make their own decisions and give informed consent.
- Manage the environment to minimise the risk of abuse.

Safeguarding Children

This eLearning course has been design for anyone who has a duty of care for, or comes into contact with children in their chosen profession.

Although most children are brought up in loving, nurturing environments and grow up to lead happy lives, the subject has to be discussed in order to better protect those children that need it most.

During this course you will hear many facts, figures and details surrounding the risk to children, the types of abuse suffered, how to recognise the signs of abuse and key safeguarding legislations put in place to minimise the abuse of children.

Once you are able to recognise the signs of possible abuse, and know the steps you should take if you suspect it you will be better able to protect the children in your care.

Course Aims

By the end of this course learners will be able to:

- Define the key terminology in relation to safeguarding;
- Identify types of abuse, who may carry it out and why children may not tell
- Recognise the signs of abuse.
- Know what to do if you suspect a child is being abused
- Identify the principle laws that relate to safeguarding and why they have been put in place to minimise abuse.
