

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title:	Water Hygiene Engineer
Reporting to:	Field Operations Supervisor

Job Purpose

To assist in the running of environmental and building legislative compliance contracts.

Key Responsibilities

Responsibilities will include carrying out various water hygiene tasks, as detailed below: -

- Water temperature monitoring
- Water sampling
- Disinfection of showers
- Disinfection of domestic water services
- Clean & Disinfection of Cold Water Storage Tanks
- Hygiene monitoring of water systems
- TMV servicing
- Inspection of Calorifiers
- Undertaking of remedial actions to water systems
- Carry out allocated service work within agreed time schedules, adhering to the company's health and safety policy and quality policy, and to the relevant industry guidelines and customer specifications
- Complete reports and paperwork as instructed by your team leader
- Be available to carry out necessary works outside normal hours with additional remuneration
- Quality – Ensure compliance with QMS, documentation to be correct and current
- Remedial works
- Any other associated duties which may be requested from time to time

Essential Criteria

- Previous experience in TMV servicing
- Up to date Legionella awareness training
- Have at least 2 years' previous experience of Legionella monitoring and sampling
- Able to work as part of a team.
- Full driving licence
- Able to deal directly with customers in a profession manner and represent the company

Desirable criteria

- Completion and interpretation of chemical service reports
- Experience of Legionella Risk Assessments